

1. Expenses

- Insurance $2400
- Music $2000
- Programs $2000
- Facilities Rental $600
- Equipment/Repairs $500

2. Band direction

- A. Increase in membership of 20 people in last year.
- B. Twice as many bookings at assisted living centers in the Greenwood area for mini-concerts
- C. New head director Randy Greenwell formerly of Franklin Central Schools
- D. Concerts have more of a theme to generate more public interest.
Halloween production is a good example
- E. The children's concert has expanded to become more of an event than simply a concert.
- F. More bands with interest in coming to August festival than we have time slots for.
- G. More small ensembles from within the group which gives people even more opportunity to stay involved with the performing arts.

3. Synopsis

We are proud to be providing the community with a quality fine arts program for both the audience, band members and even through things like the festival a chance for those from outside of Greenwood to still share in the music tradition. On behalf of the band board and membership in general, I'd like to extend our sincerest thanks for your support.

Now for the shameless plug, we are playing in a festival at the Warren Central fine arts center tomorrow night at 8:00 and have our first concert in Greenwood on April 15th at 7:00pm in the high school auditorium. I'd like to invite you all to come out and see what we are all about.....
